Guarding Skills

FETAC Level 4 - C10266

Oyster TRAINING Programmes

This qualification provides an excellent foundation for work, as it satisfies the minimum training requirements, determined by the Private Security Authority, for the licensing of individuals working with the Static or Retail Security Guarding Sector of the security industry. Following successful completion of the programme, learners may apply for licensing under the Security Guard (static) Licence category. This programme leads to the FETAC Level 4 Certificate C10266, Basic Guarding Skills.

Programme Aims

The aim of this programme is to provide learners with an introductory understanding of practical door security duties and procedures those working in the mainstream and retail security industry. Learners will:

- Acquire a theoretical knowledge of security, the industry and its history
- Be familiar with the duties and responsibilities of Door Retail Security Office
- Be aware of the legal codes which apply
- Demonstrate a range of skills required for workplace security procedures and appropriate response to on-site emergencies

Programme Content

The programme is delivered in four units as follows:

- An introduction to the Private Security Industry
- Duties and Responsibilities of the Security Officer
- Relevant Legislation
- Risk Awareness
- Practical Retail and Static Security Procedures
